Forecast For The United Kingdom
Issued by Met Office Exeter
at 1600 on Saturday 30 Oct 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 1800 and 0600

Headline:
Further wet, windy weather at times for most areas.

This Evening and Tonight:
Many areas drier for a time with clear spells.Thickening cloud will bring further heavy rainfall and coastal gales across most southwest and central parts of the UK later, with the chance of torrential downpours and perhaps isolated damaging gusts.

Sunday:
Heavy rain and possibly squally winds advancing across remaining eastern and northern areas. Turning somewhat brighter but with further heavy showers in places, most persistent in parts of the northwest.

Outlook for Monday to Wednesday:
Winds easing and showers gradually becoming lighter and confined to coastlines. This allowing a good deal of fine and dry conditions inland, with some overnight mist and fog.
